

UC San Diego Registered Student Organization Constitution

I. The organization shall be called Fusheng Chinese Drama Troupe at UCSD.

II. Constituted by a group of master and PhD students who are seeking extracurricular activities in drama, this organization would like to perform dramas in the language of Chinese. This organization will perform existing famous Chinese dramas as well as original dramas in Chinese. There are three aims as follows.

Firstly, graduate students who are interested in acting have more flexible time to. Thus it provides them an opportunity to contribute to their passions. Secondly, there are a portion of Chinese graduate students who are willing to watch home dramas if possible. This organization will give them an access to Chinese dramas. Thirdly, students at UCSD who are learning Chinese as a second language are also welcomed to watch our show as well. Similar to those who start to learn English from very young by listening to English songs and watching English movies, Chinese drama will also be attractive to those who are learning Chinese and offer them a chance to face the real Chinese culture and be more interested in this language as well.

This organization will keep inviting graduate students who are interested in acting, directing and play writing. The plan is having a performance each quarter. The organization members will keep updated every year from Chinese graduate students and those who are interested in Chinese culture.

III. Fusheng Chinese Drama Troupe at UCSD is a non-profit student organization.

IV. This organization will never require fees from its membership. Everyone who is interest in Chinese culture especially in China drama are welcomed to join the organization. This organization will advertise via WeChat and Facebook to recruit new members for free.

V. This organization will usually meet once a month without activities and at least once a month with performance rehearsals. It is a drama troupe so members should be willing to spend time on rehearsals. During the meeting, members are going to negotiate the activities in the future and make plans.

VI. This organization will have a chair to make the plan about the whole year's activity as well as recruit new members. There will be two vice chair to help with regular meeting plan and preparation. Officer should really be passionate on managing the organization and seeking a better way to develop the organization. They will be in the position for one year and be elected from group members with respect to their contributions.

VII. Fusheng Chinese Drama Troupe at UCSD is a registered student organization at University of California, San Diego, but not part of the University itself.

Fusheng Chinese Drama Troupe at UCSD understands that the University does not assume legal liability for the actions of the organization.

This organization will not work with minors or elders.

VIII. This organization has a community advisor called Natalie Griffith Robichaux from the Theater and Dance Department to give us instructions in acting. She is one of the acting instructor of performance courses and she will serve one year to meet the members once a month about the performing skills.

IX. Fusheng Chinese Drama Troupe will not get fund from any associations. The university will provide space for performance for free and members can borrow or buy some small stage properties themselves and they can be saved for future. Thus it will not cost much and students' donation after the show will cover some fees. However, group members will never ask money from those who watch the shows.
