Section 2. The advisor(s) will serve a term of one academic year and be selected at the same time as the chairs of the organization.

Section 3. The advisor(s) may be removed by a 2/3 vote of the membership at a regularly scheduled organization meeting.

Section 4. A staff member from the Dean of Students Office or a School Assistant Dean may be assigned to work with the organization to assist the faculty advisor(s) and the organization.

Article VI: General Body Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings are scheduled at least once a week during the academic year; however, meetings will not be held the week of finals of each quarter. Meetings will also be a minimum of one hour in length.

Section 2. During the meetings, there will be discussions (known as Platicas) about current events or specific topics that may affect the members of the organization. An academic workshop may replace a platica. Other replacements for platicas can be any multicultural, professional, and Latinx presentations. Platicas should take place at least once every other week.

- A. Ex: Fun interactive/social gbm and the following week has to be platica unless the Nueva Herencia Board votes otherwise

Section 3. Both Co-Chairs shall facilitate the general body meetings and all members of the Nueva Herencia Board are expected to attend the meetings. If a Nueva Herencia Board member has an announcement or slide to present they are expected to share this information to the general body. No other board member shall present their information unless that board member is not present.

- A. If one or both Co-Chairs cannot be present to facilitate, then a member from the Nueva Herencia Board can be assigned to fill in.

- a. The only acceptable excuses for missing a general body meeting as a Nueva Herencia Board member are: having class, taking a quiz or test, or having an illness during the time of the general body meeting.

Section 4. General body meetings shall be a place where the members of Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego can learn and grow effectively as individuals who are academically successful, socially conscious, and professional. The meetings shall have a welcoming vibe and be an open & safe space.

Section 5. A majority of general members, 50% +1, must be present to start the general body meeting unless running late, in which case you start with respect to everyone's time.

Section 6. All general body meetings shall conclude with the tradition of “Shoutout”, with a snap added to the end of each shoutout.

Article VII. Nueva Herencia Board Meetings

Section 1. Regular board meetings are scheduled at least once a week during the academic year at the discretion of the Co-Chairs.

Section 2. The meeting cannot begin unless the majority of the Nueva Herencia Board is present for the meeting 50%+1.

Section 3. There shall be open space for all chairs to discuss ideas freely and plan.

Section 4. Nueva Herencia Board members are expected to attend all board meetings. Reasoning must be provided on absence and the absent member is responsible for updating their section of the notes with updates as well as catching up with anything missed that was discussed by the rest of the Nueva Herencia Board.

Section 5. Nueva Herencia Board meetings shall be open to all general body members. Any board member may request to have a closed meeting. To have a closed meeting, a 50% +1 vote is required from the board.

Section 6. General body members are allowed to express concerns and ideas, however, only the Nueva Herencia Board will be allowed to vote.

Section 7. The agenda for the weekly general body meetings shall be created during Nueva Herencia Board meetings.

Article VIII. Nueva Herencia Elections

Section 1. Elections are to be held towards the end of each academic year for the following year's term around mid-to-late May or early June. With enough time to announce before the banquet. The full event timeline must be decided before the start of Spring Quarter, having the board agree upon the dates for announcing elections, nominations, and elections.

Section 2. At least one week's notice will be provided for any general body meeting at which an election will be held. Elections must occur over two days. Three weeks before the election, nominations for each chair position will take place. All running candidates must be present both days unless they give the Co-Chairs 72 hours notice ahead of time.

Section 3. In the event of low active membership and anticipated low voter turnout, the board has creative freedom to adjust the requirements to allow greater participation from voters. Must have a unanimous vote from the board being 6/10. The altered election procedure and requirements must be decided before nominations take place.

Section 3. In order to be nominated for Co-chair, the member must have been active in Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego and have been a part of the Nueva Herencia Board for at least one academic year. Official membership is defined in Article II, Section 2.

Clause 1. Co-Chair Exception. If there is an individual who does not meet the requirements as stated above in Section 3 and would like to run for co-chair, the member must present a letter to the Nueva Herencia Board.

- A. The individual must have $\frac{3}{4}$ or all academic and community service hours completed at the time.
- B. The letter is to answer the question of why and how the individual is qualified to run for co-chair.
- C. The Nueva Herencia Board has a one-week period to vote on the letter with a 50% + 1 affirmative vote. Approval will place the individual on the ballot for elections.

Section 4. The Nueva Herencia Board nomination procedure is as follows:

- A. Any member of Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego can be nominated for a position and the nomination must be seconded by another member. If the nomination is not seconded, then the member is automatically disqualified for the position.
- B. A member cannot be nominated for a previously held position. A period of one academic year from the previous Nueva Herencia Board elections must have passed to be allowed.

- C. Members wishing to be nominated must be physically present; otherwise, the nomination is automatically declined.
- D. At the time of the nomination, the member can accept, defer, or decline the nomination.
 - a. Deferring nominations allows members to think about accepting or declining but must get a final response a week after the nomination takes place. If the Co-Chairs do not hear a response from the nominees, then it will be considered as declining the nominations.
- E. Elections can be attended by all UC San Diego students, however participation in the election process shall be limited to Voting members as defined in Article II Section 3.
- F. During the nomination process if a member is found to be disruptive to the process they shall receive a warning. A second warning shall result in being asked to leave the room. If there is sufficient cause as determined by the co-chairs a disruptive member may also face suspension from the group. (see Article II section 8)

Section 5. Election procedure

- A. Candidates have three minutes (five minutes for co-chair candidates) to conduct their speeches.
- B. Other candidates for the respective chair shall leave the room until the Co-Chairs gather them.
- C. The candidates' speeches shall be a representation of their abilities to fulfill the responsibility of the position, the goal of the organization, and the philosophy of Nueva Herencia.
- D. After the speech, a single fundamental question for every position workshopped by that current board member and Co-chairs will be asked. The question may be delivered by the Co-Chairs or the respective board member. After the fundamental question, general body members may ask their own questions in the remaining time. Each candidate has thirty seconds to respond to each question. A limit will be set after a reasonable time has been spent on questions.
- E. There shall be an overall 10-minute discussion for each chair position. After the discussion is over voting for the respective position will begin.
- F. The chair ballot will be passed out and the vote will be private. Voting should be based on clear intent, not persuasion.

G. A candidate must receive the majority of the votes present to be elected and be part of the upcoming Nueva Herencia Board. If there is ever a tie, the ballot keeper will immediately announce it and make everyone vote again. If there is still another tie after this, the current Nueva Herencia Board shall elect the candidate.

H. The candidate is automatically disqualified if not physically present during elections.

I. During the election process if a member is found to be disruptive to the process they shall receive a warning. A second warning shall result in being asked to leave the room. If there is sufficient cause as determined by the co-chairs a disruptive member may also face suspension from the group. (see Article II section 8)

Section 6. Votes will be cast and counted by the official ballot keepers (Co-Chairs). The ballot keepers will distribute ballots to members after the last chair nominee finishes their speech. Ballots will be collected for that position after 2 minutes.

Section 7. Leaving before the completion of the current chair election will result in the ballot being disposed of by the ballot keepers.

Section 8. All members wishing to vote must arrive on time. Members arriving after the set time for elections to begin shall not receive ballots.

Section 9. There shall be an official timekeeper. The timekeeper shall time speeches, as well as question and answer sessions. The timekeeper shall stop the nominee if the time limit is reached.

Section 10. Election results shall be revealed at the end-of-the-year banquet, which is held anytime between weeks 6 - 9 of the end of the spring quarter.

Section 11. The term of office shall be one academic year. The academic year shall begin July 1st through June 30th. Transition periods between the previous and newly elected Steering Committee shall take place during June.

Section 12. Elections can be attended by any UC San Diego student however participation in the election process shall be limited to Voting members as defined in Article II Section 3.

Article IX. Special Elections

Section 1. Special elections shall occur when an officer resigns, is impeached, or when positions are not filled during Nueva Herencia Board elections at the end of the academic year.

Section 2. Positions in which the officer resigned or was impeached shall occur within two weeks of the resignation or impeachment.

Section 3. Special elections shall follow the nomination and election procedure in (Article VIII, Section 4 and 5), respectively.

Section 4. A minimum number of 12 members must be present in order to vote, not including the Nueva Herencia Board.

Section 5. A member from the current Nueva Herencia Board can be nominated for a vacant chair, however, the member must immediately resign (verbally) from the current position in order to proceed with the nomination. This is an exception to the resignation procedure.

Article X. Finances

Section 1. All finances for events require authorization from the Treasurer. Bypassing the Treasurer's authorization shall result in a consequence set by the chair and dealt with by the rest of the Nueva Herencia Board.

Section 2. In order to receive funds for an event, the respective chair must submit a potential budget to the Treasurer. The Treasurer may lower or increase the budget if there are appropriate funds.

Section 3. The budget for major events, such as an annual retreat, banquet, etc. shall be determined by the entire Nueva Herencia Board and not just the treasurer.

Section 4. Funds gained from fundraisers shall be deposited into the Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego account.

Section 5. Dues collected shall be used to fund Nueva Herencia activities, not limited to the yearly retreat, end-of-the-year banquet, socials, apparel, etc., at the discretion of the Nueva Herencia Board.

Section 6. Under no circumstances shall Nueva Herencia funds be used to purchase alcohol or illegal substances.

Article XI. Code of Conduct

Section 1. General body members of Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego shall be considerate of others' opinions, thoughts, religious beliefs, etc.

Section 2. Members shall not be disruptive during weekly meetings.

Section 3. Be professional during the weekly meetings, such as limiting technological use (laptops, cell phones, etc.) and disturbance.

Section 4. Hazing Policy. Members of Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego shall not participate in any hazing activity. University policy with respect to hazing prohibits any recognized student organization from engaging collectively or individually in any of the following practices as part of any program or general activity:

- A. All forms of physical activity not a part of an organized athletic contest and not specifically directed toward constructive work are prohibited.
- B. The application of foreign substances to the body is prohibited.
- C. Such activities as new member ditches, kidnaps, and anything along those lines are prohibited.
- D. Any activity that is mandatory for new members only, and is not educational is prohibited.
- E. Depriving students of sufficient sleep (6 hours per day minimum), decent and edible meals, or access to means of maintaining bodily cleanliness is prohibited.
- F. Depriving students of "sense awareness" (sight, sound, etc.), which may cause mental and/or physical stress, is prohibited.
- G. Forcing or permitting students to eat or drink foreign or unusual substances such as raw meat, salt water, onions, etc., or excessive amounts of any substance is prohibited.
- H. Forcing, or allowing, students to dress in any unusual or awkward fashion is prohibited.

Section 6. Any allegations of hazing should be referred to the Office of Vice Chancellor - Student Affairs.

Section 7. A person(s) initiating hazing is guilty of either a misdemeanor or a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison, as stated in State of California Penal Code 245.6.

Article XII. Risk Management

Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego is a registered student organization at the University of California, San Diego, but not part of the University itself.

Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego understands that the University does not assume legal liability for the actions of the organization.

Section 1. Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego is aware that all registered student organizations that serve minors or the elderly have access to training on child and elder abuse prevention for its members via UC Learning <https://uclearning.ucsd.edu> . Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego will develop plan(s) for activities and events where members will be interacting with minors or the elderly such that members will receive education and/or training on Child Abuse Neglect Reporting Act (CANRA), common sense measures to both avoid child or elder abuse allegations (i.e. avoiding one-on-one situations; working with minors in plain view of others; limiting calls/texts/social media posts or other communications with minors), and how to properly report potential harm or neglect to minors or the elderly with whom they are working.

Article XIII. Traditions

Section 1. Traditions shall include the “Props” session at the end of all weekly general body meetings, as well as platicas. Platicas are discussions about events or specific topics that may either affect the members of the organization, or the community surrounding them.

Section 2. Other traditions include a minimum of one general body retreat. Board retreats shall take place during summer and winter. Both retreats are at the discretion of the Nueva Herencia Board.

Section 3. End-of-the-year banquet, where election results will be revealed.

Section 4. Nueva Herencia Logo. The official logo for Nueva Herencia shall include at least one puma and one jaguar present with the NH letters being the main focus.

Section 5. Nueva Herencia Colors. The colors for Nueva Herencia shall be navy and creme.

Section 6. The Historian and Secretary shall be the keeper of the end of the year farewell video and all previous farewell videos.

Section 7. The Nueva Herencia Board shall maintain and sign the official handmade Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego banner, journal, and NH letter before passing it on to the newly-elected Nueva Herencia Board.

1. The Nueva Herencia Banner and NH letters will be kept track of and maintained by the newly elected Nueva Herencia Co-Chairs.
2. The Nueva Herencia Journal will be kept track of and maintained by the newly elected Nueva Herencia Historian and Secretary.

Article XIV. Method to Amend the By-laws

Section 1. A proposal to change the Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego by-laws/constitution must be submitted and presented to the Nueva Herencia Board during their meeting time by the member proposing the change. A 2/3 vote from the Nueva Herencia Board must occur in order for the proposal to continue to the general body.

Section 2. Changes to the constitution must be submitted and voted on within the first full month of the quarter.

Section 3. A copy of the constitution/by-laws and/or amendments to the by-laws must be filed in the Dean of Students Office at the University of California, San Diego every 2 years or within 90 days after any substantive change or amendment.

Section 4. All members of the Nueva Herencia Board must be present when a copy of the bylaws is filed in the Dean of Students Office at the University of California, San Diego.

Article XV. Disbursal of Organization Assets

Section 1. In the event that Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego should become defunct, all assets will be split up evenly between the current Nueva Herencia Board in office.

Article XVI. Rules of Order

Section 1. Nueva Herencia de UC San Diego accepts “Robert’s Rules of Order” as its Rules of Order.

Section 2. Any issues not directly written in this document will be resolved by referring to the Rules of Order.
