

Multicultural Greek Council at UC San Diego
Governing Bylaws
Revised: August 31, 2023

PREAMBLE

In 2002, the founding chapters, alpha Kappa Delta Phi Sorority Inc. (αΚΔΦ), Lambda Phi Epsilon Fraternity Inc. (ΛΦΕ), Lambda Theta Nu Sorority Inc. (ΛΘΝ), Nu Alpha Kappa Fraternity Inc. (ΝΑΚ), and Phi Lambda Rho Sorority Inc. (ΦΛΡ), sorority and fraternity organizations have joined to form a united council. The organization shall be called the Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) at UC San Diego. Our philosophy reflects the various ideals and traditions that each organization has developed.

We are here to stand united as one strong voice dedicated to representing our diverse interests and objectives by broadening our influence and presence at UC San Diego. Our aspiration is the unification of cultural and identity based sororities and fraternities to serve the University community through our diversity, academic agendas, community service projects, and to be an outlet for social interaction. We recognize that there are certain areas of action and programming that can be best carried out by the joint efforts of all such organizations. We do hereby establish such an organization and bind ourselves to abide by the provisions of the following bylaws.

Article I
Purpose

The objective of MGC shall be to create and maintain high standards in fraternities and sororities by addressing, coordinating, and developing strategic action plans that unify organizations, promote higher education, provide community service, and enhance leadership skills.

- I. MGC will serve as a liaison and advocate to the Associated Students (AS), the Center for Student Involvement (CSI), and other UC San Diego Registered Student Organizations.
- II. All policies and activities of the Council and its members shall comply with MGC Bylaws, University policies, and any applicable local, state, and federal laws.
- III. MGC shall maintain open communication and provide an inclusive space for all chapters.
- IV. Undergraduate chapters of the MGC shall be composed of college/university national and local fraternities and sororities that are cultural and identity based at UC San Diego.
- V. MGC at UC San Diego is a non-profit student organization.

- VI. MGC commits to supporting organizations affiliated with the National Pan-Hellenic Council in their efforts to establish and further their visibility at UC San Diego.
- VII. MGC at UC San Diego is a registered student organization at the University of California, San Diego, but not part of the University itself.

Article X

Chapter Standings

Section A: Purpose & Standings

- I. MGC Chapter Standings are a proactive and accountability measure to ensure organizations are meeting council and community expectations and provide opportunities for intervention to further support chapters.

- II. Chapter Standings are not a Judicial Process but rather aim to ensure that organizations, MGC Executive Board, and SFL Advisors are collaborating and communicating about chapter struggles, progress, and areas of support.
 - A. The Judicial Process is an avenue to hold chapters accountable regardless of their standing. These procedures are outlined in Article XV.
- III. Standings
 - A. Good Standing
 - B. Probationary Standing
 - C. Retention Probation
 - D. Bad Standing
 - E. Dormant Standing
 - F. Dishonorable Standing
- IV. Notification of Standing
 - A. Chapter standings are disclosed at the beginning of every quarter as based on the chapter's performance in the previous quarter.
 - 1. The Vice President of Administration will send a notification email to every chapter with their standing. Any chapter that is below Good Standing will receive an outline of expectations not met.
 - B. If a chapter's standing changes at any point during the quarter as they meet expectations, the Vice President of Administration will notify the chapter via email with the update.

Section B: Good Standing

- I. All Chapters in Good Standing must meet the following expectations:
 - A. Quarterly average GPA of at least 2.6
 - B. Must be in Good Standing with their National Board.
 - C. Submit New Member Data Sheets for all new members to the Sorority & Fraternity Life Advisors and maintain an updated roster.

Article XIV Judicial Procedures

Section A: Purpose and Authority

- I. The Judicial board shall act as a representation of the MGC community in reviewing disputes and complaints that are in contrast to the MGC Bylaws, University Policies, and/or state and federal laws.
- II. The Judicial Board will be responsible for resolving matters involving council regulations and organizational disputes.
- III. The Judicial Board will be responsible for reviewing any motions to remove an Executive Board Officer.

Section B: Judicial Structure

- I. The judicial procedures shall be composed of three steps, informal discussion, formal mediation, followed by a Judicial Board Hearing if needed.
- II. It is advised that disputes and complaints are managed through an informal discussion or formal mediation process. Judicial Board Hearings should be held to high standards and as a last form of resolution if informal discussion and mediation is not successful.

Section C: Informal Discussion and Formal Mediation

III. Informal Discussion

- A. This shall be the first step in which the two parties have a discussion to share about the situation and come to a common ground.
- B. No documentation shall take place of this discussion through MGC.
- C. If either of the two parties do not feel comfortable in participating in Informal Discussion they may request to move forward with a Formal Mediation.

IV. Formal Mediation

- A. The SFL Advisor will appoint an unbiased mediator for the Formal Mediation.
- B. Both parties will have the opportunity to share their perspective and outline their proposed outcome from the mediation.
- C. Each party will have no more than four representatives which includes the president if either party involves an organization.
 - 1. Executive Board Officers may not serve as representatives for their chapter during formal mediations involving their chapter as one of the parties.
- D. The Vice President of Administration shall be present to take notes at all formal mediations unless their chapter is one of the parties involved, in which case a different Executive Board Officer shall be appointed.
 - 1. If the MGC Executive Board is one of the responding parties, the Vice President of Administration will only serve as a note taker and not a representative.
- E. The SFL Advisor may be present at all mediations.
- F. The goal of the mediation shall be to resolve the dispute with outcomes that must be agreed by both parties.
 - 1. The outcomes may not be monetary based.
 - 2. The outcomes may not extend over a year period.
- G. The Vice President of Administration will be the keeper of the notes and agreement and send out to parties involved.
- H. The Formal Mediation and agreements shall remain confidential to the parties involved and MGC President and Vice President of Administration.
- I. If an outcome agreement can not be reached then a Judicial Board Hearing will proceed.

Section D: Judicial Board Hearings Procedures

- I. A Judicial Board hearing should only be called if Informal Discussion and Formal Mediation between the two parties is not successful.
 - A. A Judicial Board Hearing may also be called if an organization is found responsible for policy violations under the Office of Student Conduct only if the organization was not removed from the University. Additional sanctions may be placed by the Judicial Board if and only if MGC wants to move forward with the process.
 - B. Judicial Board Hearings may only review incidents and complaints from two quarters prior to the first Informal Discussion. This does not apply to Judicial Board Hearings based on outcomes of an investigation with the Office of Student Conduct.

- II. The MGC Vice President Administration shall preside as the Chair of the Judicial Board and shall:
 - A. Decide, in consultation with the Judicial Board, the date, time and location of the proceedings.
 - B. Inform the involved organization in writing the date, time and location of the proceedings, within five business days after consultation with the Judicial Board.
 - C. Receive all information that will be presented at the hearing at least five days before the hearing.
 - D. Forward all information and brief the Judicial Board at least two days before the hearing.
- III. In the event that the Vice President Administration is unable to preside (e.g. if that chair's organization is among the involved parties), the President will preside.
- IV. The Judicial Board will be composed of the following:
 - A. One member from the selected seven organizations.
 1. Organizations will be randomly selected by the Chair of the Judicial Board and the SFL Advisor. Organizations shall not serve on two consecutive Judicial Boards unless absolutely necessary.
 - B. The SFL Advisor to serve as support for the process and procedures.
 - C. Each of the seven organization representatives shall receive one vote.
 - D. The hearing will be open only to presidents, delegates, and one other chapter representative of the presenting and responding organizations and any of their witnesses.
- V. The pre-hearing procedures shall be as follows:
 - A. The organization, or Executive Board Officer, bringing allegations against another organization or Executive Board Officer, shall provide a written complaint no later than ten business days, following the Formal Mediation to the Judicial Board Chair.
 - B. The Judicial Board Chair informs the accused organization, or Executive Board Officer, of the complaint within three days.
 - C. The Judicial Board Chair informs the organization Presidents, in writing, of the hearing date, location, and time.
 - D. Presidents of involved organizations will have five business days to appeal, in writing, for a change of the time and date of the hearing.
- VI. The hearing procedures shall be as follows:
 - A. The Judicial Board arrives half an hour early. All parties involved will wait outside the established location until the hearing is convened.
 - B. Introductions of the Judicial Board and the parties involved are made.
 - C. The Chair outlines the hearing and asks all witnesses to leave the room. Only the Board and the representatives of the organizations may remain.
 - D. The Board and the organization representatives review all information if they have not already done so.
 - E. The Judicial Board Chair reads the charges. The accused organization, or Executive Board Officer, then has the opportunity to accept or deny responsibility.

1. If they accept responsibility, the Judicial Board will deliberate and render a sanction.
2. If they do not accept responsibility, the organization(s)/office/individual bringing forth allegations present its case including evidence and witnesses.

F. Witnesses are brought in one at a time.

G. The Judicial Board questions presenting organization and witnesses only.

H. The accused organization has the opportunity to present a defense including evidence and witnesses. Witnesses are brought in one at a time.

I. The Judicial Board questions those presenting information in defense.

J. The Judicial Board Chair will then mandate that all non-Board members vacate the hearing room.

K. The Judicial Board deliberates and makes a decision on the charged organization's responsibility and renders sanctions if applicable. Decisions must be made by two-thirds majority vote.

L. Only members of the presenting and defending organizations will be asked to reenter the hearing room. The Judicial Board Chair reads the decisions, rationale and sanctions, if applicable.

M. The hearing is immediately adjourned and the event is kept in confidence amongst those present.

VII. Post-hearing procedures shall be as follows:

- A. The decisions will be put in writing, within twenty-four hours, by the Judicial Board Chair and delivered to presenting and responding organizations, with an additional copy sent to the Sorority and Fraternity Life Advisor.
- B. Any appeal must be made in writing within seventy-two hours following adjournment of the hearing.
- C. A copy of the appeal should be submitted to the Judicial Board Chair, and the Sorority and Fraternity Life Advisor.

VIII. Sanctions and outcomes

- A. For violation of any Article of the Constitution, the following penalties are applicable according to the severity of the violation
 1. Voting rights revoked for a specific period
 2. Suspension for a specified period
 3. Suspension for an indefinite period of time, pending readmission by the body
 4. A fine appropriate to the violation
 5. Educational sanctions
 6. Community Service
 7. Any combination of the above
- B. Under extreme circumstances, the Judicial Board may work with the Sorority and Fraternity Life Advisor to assign a penalty that has not been mentioned.
- C. The organization must abide by all levied sanctions.

IX. Appeals

- A. Any appeals to the outcome of a Judicial Board Hearing will be reviewed by the Judicial Board with input from the SFL Advisor.

- B. Appeals will only be considered to modify the sanctions provided by the Judicial Board.
- C. The appealing party must give rationale for each sanction they are asking to be modified along with an alternative they find more reasonable.
- D. The presenting party will not be involved in the appeal process but will be notified if sanctions have been modified.

Article XV MGC Calendar

- I. Each organization is required to provide a tentative calendar of their events for the following quarter at the last meeting of the current quarter.
 - A. Events should include, but are not limited to, recruitment events, social events, fundraisers, philanthropies, cultural events, and community service events.
 - B. Submissions may include events without solidified dates but must be updated once the date is finalized.
- II. For Fall Quarter, the tentative calendar must be submitted two weeks before Week 0/ Welcome Week.
- III. The Vice President of Marketing will facilitate this process to ensure chapters submit by the deadline before Welcome Week and by Monday of Week 10 for winter and spring quarters.

Article XVI Amendments

- I. Amendments to the MGC Bylaws may be proposed by the Executive Board and member organizations through their representatives.
- II. The amendment process is as follows:
 - A. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws may be submitted during New Business at any MGC Council Meeting. The proposed amendment will be heard and discussed at the following meeting with a final vote taking place the week after.
- III. The Executive Board will only make recommendations, no alterations, to the proposed amendment.
- IV. Proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be considered adopted by a two-thirds vote.
- V. The Vice President of Administration may make grammatical adjustments to the Bylaws, as long as the changes maintain the integrity of the original meaning.
